Everything Needed To Complete
Your Easter Wardrobe
Will Be Found Here

THE EASTER SUIT IS ONE OF THE IMPORTANT ITEMS OF THE WARDROBE.

and the woman who adores a severely tailored suit, and the one who prefers lines more or less elaborate will rejoice in this showing, for it includes plenty of models in both types, as well as many in between, in the newest fabrics and colorings, at $35.00 and up to $80.00.

THE EASTER COAT

may be fashioned of Polo or Camel's Hair Cloth, and the charming effects in this display are two numerous to describe, both long and short coats are featured, with linings in most cases, extending only to waist line—$25.00 to $79.00.

THE NEW SPRING DRESSES ARE VERY INTERESTING

Foremost among the new dresses in this Spring showing are Taffeta, Georgette and Tricotee. They are new and unusual in styling and very effectively embellished with embroideries, beads and frills of self material—$29.50 up to $69.00.

EASTER BLOUSES

and the various styles featured in this showing are certain to win the favor of discriminating women for they represent, without a doubt, some of the choicest styles the season has produced, and their attractive prices are sure to increase their popularity.

SILK HOSIERY FOR EASTER

The Easter costume is not complete without Silk Hosiery, and our display is noteworthy from a standpoint of variety as well as quality, and may be had in a good range of colors, including black and white—$1.80 to $3.50 a pair.

EASTER RIBBONS

For. Sashes, Bags, Millinery purposes, Lingerie, Hair Bows, etc. The collection of Ribbons in Silk and Satin is wide.
Metallic embroidered and richly brocaded Ribbons are gorgeous in colorings and texture—25c up to $4.50 a yard.

EASTER GLOVES

All the newest Glove styles for Spring are featured in this display.
New ideas in stitching, the smartest coloring of the season and the practical quality of the leathers employed are features that should interest you—and they may be had in domestic or imported makes.
Silk Gloves may be had in wrist-length, 12 or 16 button-length—natural only.

EASTER NECKWEAR

Few Frocks could not help being successful, if enhanced with such enchanting Neckwear styles as we are now showing—adorable are the innumerable styles designed to wear with square cut and rounded necklines, and fashioned of sheer materials, such as organdies, voiles and net, at 50c to $2.98.

NEW VEILS—March winds and smart Spring Hats are in league to encourage women to wear the flattering new Veils. Here are Veils in unique fancy meshes and very decorative in their scroll designs and pin dot chenille that will drape severely simple chapeaux.

WILLIMANTIC

Norwich Bulletin, Willimantic, Orfice, 23 Church St., Telephone 105.

William Burton was arrested Friday morning about 10 o'clock by Officer John Killourey charged with assault on John Taylor, of Vernon.
After being taken to the police station he was released upon furnishing a $50 bond and is to appear before the court this (Saturday) morning. Mr.
Taylor came to this city Friday morning in search of a bicycle which he supposed he would find in the Ackerman home in School street lane. Upon arriving at that place he was informed that the bicycle had been his that home but Tuesday it had been taken by Mrs. Evelyn Ackerman, to the home of Dennis Cunihan on Bank street. Upon arriving at the Cunihan house, Mr. Taylor was met at the door by Mrs. Cunihan to whom he stated the purpose of his visit. At this time it is claimed Burton came to the door and swung on Mr. Taylor, bruising him badly about the eyes. Mr. Taylor bore all the evidences of the assault when he appeared before a magistrate to swear out his warrant and the arrest followed shortly.

At the meeting of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, No. 1311 to be held Wednesday night, April 7, there is to be installation of officers.
Best Exalted Ruler, John H. Carney, of Norwich, who came from the Norwich lodge to this city March 31, 1914, and took charge of the initiation and installation of the lodge in this city is to have charge of the installation ceremonies. The remainder of the evening is to be spent socially, and refreshments and smokes are to be enjoyed.

William J. Smith is spending the Easter holidays at the home of his sister in Providence, R. I.

At the meeting of the Willimantic Chamber of Commerce to be held Tuesday evening at the hotel, the business meeting is to be followed by an address by Rev. J. Remy Ranforth, D. D., of New London, on "Ragged Dicks." Mr. Ranforth's lecture, "Ragged Dicks," is full of humor and quaint sayings and his friends call him the funniest after dinner speaker in New England. A supper will be served to the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. John Duff and daughter, Margaret, are to spend the week end at the home of Mrs. Duff's brother, Albert Moreland, of Lowell, Mass.
C. A. Sampson, physical director at the Y. M. C. A., was in Hartford on Friday, attending a meeting of the state physical directors. The children's class at the Y. M. C. A. on Friday afternoon was led by Miss Vivian Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. William G. Stark of Hartford will be Easter visitors at the home of Mrs. Stark's mother, Mrs. Cora Stone, of this city.

Paul Batten and Lester French are to spend Easter at the home of Mr.
French's sister in Boston.

Valentine L. Murphy, chairman of the town committee, has issued a call for a caucus to be held next week at the town hall for the purpose of electing delegates to the democratic state convention to be held at New Haven, May 5 and 6. At the meeting there will also be the election of a town committee for the next two years.

William H. Latham of Pearl street received word Friday morning that his summer cottage and two others, with contents, at Pleasure Beach, Waterford, were destroyed by fire late Thursday night. The other owners losing cottages were Samuel L. Bur-ingham, formerly of this city, and Mrs. Smith of New London. These three cottages which stood close to the waterfront at the lower end of the beach, were used together, accommodation for the spread of the flames. Mr.
Latham's cottage was a two-story structure of seven rooms and was well furnished. The other cottages were two stories also, and were built not many years ago.

Pupils perfect in attendance at the Windham Street school during the fall term were:

PIMPY? WELL, DON'T BE

People Notice It. Drive Them
Off with Dr. Edwards'
Olive Tablets

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

Cleanse the blood, bowels and liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel; there's no sickness or pain after taking them.
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cured with a "dirty, brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad digestion or pimply face.

Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets cure skin patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints, and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result. Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 10c and 25c.

Thomas O'Connell of Hartford was in this city Friday and renewed acquaintances with many friends made while a resident here some thirty years ago. He was the first friend Mr. O'Connell called upon was Chief of Police Daniel J. Killourey and after they had a swapping of tales for some time, several other friends were called upon. Mr. O'Connell noted many changes in the city, one of the most important being the vast change in the American Thread Company plant.
Mr. O'Connell, who is a printer by trade, at present is set type for the Willimantic Journal. He was employed also by the Connecticut Home as printer of Allen B. Lincoln's temperance sheet. At present he is in the employ of the Travelers Insurance Company in the printing department.

It couldn't be done, and that's all there is to it! The Emeralds of this city walked away with the game from the Wyanokas of Hartford Thursday night. The game was the same as in Hartford all the way through and at the end of the first half the score favored the Emeralds.

A new fisherman, who tried the end Friday, reported that he had not been as good as it was Thursday. One or two good catches were made, however.

Funeral services for Mrs. Ida A.
Hawley were held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from her home in Windham Center with a large attendance of relatives and friends. Services at the home were conducted by Rev. William Brown, who also conducted a committee service at the grave in the Windham Center cemetery. Arrangements were in charge of Funeral Director Jay M. Shepard.

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Cassini were held Friday morning at 10 o'clock from the parlor of a local undertaker. Services were held at St. Mary's church at 10:30 o'clock.
Rev. Edward Murphy officiated at the services at the church and read a committal service at the grave in St.
Joseph's cemetery. The bereaved are Mrs. Casini's mother, Mrs. Mary Holland and Harry Brown.

At the Methodist Episcopal church Rev. C. Harley Smith, pastor there will be a special Easter song service at 10:45, followed by a business session of members. A harpiste session, The Strife is Over, will be sung and the choir will render, Joyful Bells and Oh, Death, Where is Thy Sting?
Sunday school at 11 o'clock. A regular evening service will be at 7

ANNOUNCEMENTS
Sunday at the Strand.

The Strand has a special show arranged for Sunday, featuring Anita Stewart in The Combat.

Muriel Fleming is cast in the role of Muriel Fleming, a girl whose widow mother, facing financial straits, seeks to marry her off to a man of wealth. Muriel loves Graydon Burton, a young man who lacks money.

Being forbidden to marry him, she does so secretly, and Graydon leaves for the gold fields to win his fortune.

During his absence Muriel reads a false report of his death. Her mother, meantime, driven almost to desperation by impending bankruptcy, makes a pact with a man of wealth to give him her daughter's hand in marriage in return for the financial salvation he will provide.

The picture is full of surprises and dramatic situations. There are exciting scenes shown of Graydon's adventures among the gold hunters and his pursuit as a criminal.

Screen smiles, the bits from bright hits, Scenic Travelogue, and a rip-roaring Automobile cor- will be included in this big Sunday show.

The Strand will have some extra added attractions for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Watch the newspapers for our coming attractions.

Shetucket street, room 5, all members urged to be present.

Davis Theatre Sunday.

An exceptionally fine program is booked for the Davis this Sunday evening and there will be a double feature show with two of the most popular stars in America. The main attraction is Bonnie Barricade in The Luck of Geraldine Laird, a six-part society drama wherein this beautiful actress achieves an emotional triumph that excels anything she has ever accomplished. To tell you the story would spoil the interest, so you had better come and see Miss Barricade and you will not regret it. The story is by Kathleen Norris, a well known author.

The second feature is Man and His Money, with Tom Moore as the star.
Everyone knows that there is no one who can make a picture so fine as screen better than Tom, and in this picture he still shines brightly. There are heights reached in this picture which have never before been reached, not even by Tom Moore, despite his impressive performances in previous pictures.

Topics of the Day, Post Travel pictures and a real funny comedy complete the show. Regular time, 7 and 8:30.

Tonight—Don't fail to see Every-woman, the most beautiful picture ever screened with a magnificent cast.
Every woman should see this production.

Big Time Vaudeville at the Davis Starting Easter Monday.

The patrons of the Davis theatre have a real treat in store next week.
The vaudeville show, which season opens Easter Monday. The first three days' programme consists of five of the best vaudeville acts obtainable.

They are all big time acts and standard attractions. The first act is Robert Henry Hodge and company in a farical sketch entitled Bill Blithers Lawyer, a comedy offering with a decided human touch. Whitfield and Ireland have a novel comedy act entitled The Belle of Bligville, an entertaining act that is a real rib tickler with its wealth of funny comedy, droll situations, odd costumes and eccentric dancing.

The second act is a comedy duo, not make you forget your troubles and one can. A little diversion is supplied by Jester and King, a team of novelty gymnasts with a lot of new sensational feats. Tenn and Fiddie are the fourth act and they are all by themselves when it comes to putting over the real goods. The fifth act is Read and Callaway, a high class comedy duo which will give selections on piano, violin and harp in conjunction with their big vaudeville bill the management have secured the services of additional musicians and an enlarged orchestra to provide the necessary accompaniment in keeping with the show. The feature picture on this program is a Paramount production called What Is Your Husband Doing and features Douglas MacLean and Doris May, the two lively and attractive young stars who have recently risen to stardom.

This picture is a laughing cure for the blues, as well as an inside tip to young wives who are suspicious of their husbands. Paramount Magazine, an interesting screen weekly, completes this big bill opening bill. As there is sure to be a big demand for seats, it would be better to come early Monday. Get in line for
